HEAD TEACHER'S HIGHLIGHTS

Dear parents,

A great week here at Church Aston, It's been lovely to see the Reception children settled and joining in with even more routines such as; sports clubs, art club and lunches.

We were pleased to hold the short welcome assembly outside for all our new children. Please enjoy the photos to follow.

As learning to read is such an important part of their learning journey, each of them have received a story book gift to keep and share with their families.

As you are aware we are following all test and trace procedures, please be patient with this process as this seems to be something we inevitably have to get used to.

We have been asking children how they have felt about their return to school and captured a few quotes which can be found later in the newsletter. If you have any comments about how you feel your child has felt returning to school please e-mail these to me on h2033@taw.org.uk, have a wonderful weekend.

It has been a full week for most of the children this week. We have been lucky with the weather. The local business Huws and Gray have donated some pipework and fittings for the school to enhance their water play. The children loved working with the pipes and soapy water to make water travel in different ways.

The children have been writing about emotions. We found ways of making ourselves feel calm by listening to music, Cosmic Yoga and finding a nice quiet place to relax.

Year 1s have worked hard this week. In R.E they have thought about people they respect. In Science they have been labelling body parts.

Reception have received a certificate and gift to welcome them to our school.

It has been a busy week in Class 2. The children have been writing about themselves using adjectives to describe and using because to explain why their friends are special. In history we have thought of 10 questions they would like parents/carers to help them answer to further understand their own personal timeline. (We have attached the questions to the newsletter just in case they have not come home.) We will discuss what the children have found out on Monday. We have also started our artwork looking at our own self portraits and completing the missing half looking carefully at the position of our features on our faces.

Please bring your book bags with your reading book and Reading Record in school everyday along with your water bottles. Thank you
